

We need to have restrictions on media ownership and keep large corporations from owning too many radio and TV stations. Please preserve the rules that prevent mergers between major TV networks. Otherwise, we will deteriorate to the point where we resemble a third world nation, not the proud democracy that we have been. Diversity has been a great strength of this country. Let's keep it.